Understanding Islam

Islam has spread throughout the Western world in ways unimagined 40 years ago. During this time, jihadism has made Islamic terrorism normative. Yet, there are vast numbers of business and political leaders, as well as church leaders, who continue to speak of Islam as only a religion of peace. Some churches even include interfaith forums between Christians and Muslim leaders, creating much controversy. With the rise of Islam today, what must the Christian know about this religion? What is their view of sin, salvation, and Jesus? What is their view of the future? What mandates about the world and the future are found in the Qu'ran and the Hadith? Can there be detente between Islam and Christianity? What are the political realities of Islamic Shariah law and how is that impacting Europe, the USA, and Canada?

To address these vital questions Chafer Seminary has invited Shahram Hadian, a former Muslim who converted to Christianity as a young adult, to help us understand the truth about Islam and the direction of modern Islamic movements. It is vital for Bible-believing Christians to be informed for the dual purpose of evangelism, as well as the political and civil decisions that must be made in relation to Islamic immigration.

Eight sessions will be devoted to the study of Islam. The other sessions will focus on some vital studies of God's Word when we will be refreshed by the eternal truths of the Scripture.

Make your plans to be informed and attend the Chafer Seminary Bible Conference. All who wish to know the truth are welcome to attend.
