The Little Scroll

Rev. 10:1–3, “And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire; and he had in his hand a little book which was open. And he placed his right foot on the sea and his left on the land; and he cried out with a loud voice, as when a lion roars; and when he had cried out, the seven peals of thunder uttered their voices.”

Rev. 10:7, “but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God would be finished, as He declared to His servants the prophets.”

Rev. 10:8, “Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, ‘Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth.’

Rev. 10:9, “So I went to the angel and said to him, ‘Give me the little book.’

And he said to me, ‘Take and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth.’”

Rev. 10:10, “Then I took the little book out of the angel’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

Rev. 10:11, “And he said to me, ‘You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings.’”

Jer. 15:16, “Your words were found and I ate them, and Your words became for me a joy and the delight of my heart; For I have been called by Your name, O LORD God of hosts.”

Ezek. 3:1, “Then He said to me, ‘Son of man, eat what you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.’

Ezek. 3:2, “So I opened my mouth, and He fed me this scroll.

Ezek. 3:3, “He said to me, ‘Son of man, feed your stomach and fill your body with this scroll which I am giving you.’ Then I ate it, and it was sweet as honey in my mouth.”
