Heb. 11:13, "These all died in faith,
not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured
of them, embraced them and confessed
that they were strangers and pilgrims
on the earth."

Phil. 3:20, “For our citizenship is in heaven,
from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior,
the Lord Jesus Christ,”

Heb. 11:14, "For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland."

Heb. 11:15, "And truly if they had called to mind that country from which they had come out, they would have had opportunity to return."

Heb. 11:16, "But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country.

Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them."

Heb. 11:16, "But now they desire a better, that is, a heavenly country. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them."

ὀρέγω orego; pres mid ind, 3p;

"to seek to accomplish a specific goal, aspire to, strive for, desire"

Heb. 11:17, "By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,"

Heb. 11:18, "of whom it was said, 'In Isaac your seed shall be called,' "

Heb. 11:19, "concluding that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he also received him in a figurative sense."
