Sounding the Shofar on
Rosh Hashanah

Question:

Why doesn't the Torah name this day or celebration?

Suggested answers:

The day of the coronation of God as King;
related to the celebration of creation.
(cf., Psa. 95–100)

Agricultural cycle, fall harvests

New Year

Rosh Hashanah

Scripture: Lev. 23:1–44; Num. 28:9–29:39; Deut. 16:1–17

These High Holy Days are a unique creation of the Jewish religious spirit. They embody the singular ideas and theology of Judaism and have the power to transform and renew human life.

Reuven Hammer, Entering the High Holy Days
(Philadelphia:JPS, 2005)

Leviticus 23:24, “Speak to the Israelite people thus: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe complete rest, a sacred occasion commemorated with loud blasts.

Leviticus 23:25, “You shall not work at your occupations; and you shall bring an offering by fire to the Lord.”

Numbers 29:1, “In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a sacred occasion: you shall not work at your occupations. You shall observe it as a day when the horn is sounded.”

Agricultural cycle, fall harvests

Psalm 95:1, “Come, let us sing joyously to the Lord, raise a shout for our rock and deliverer;

Psalm 95:2, “let us come into His presence with praise; let us raise a shout for Him in song!”

Ezekiel 40:1, “In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, the fourteenth year after the city had fallen, at the beginning of the year [בְּרֵאשִׁית הַשָּׁנָה], the tenth day of the month—on that very day—the hand of the Lord came upon me, and He brought me there.”

- The First of Nisan for reckoning the reigns of Jewish kings (the date for determining how many years a king has ruled) and for establishing the order of the festivals.
- The First of Elul for tithing animals.
- The First of Tishrei for agriculture (sabbatical years, jubilee years), passing judgment on humankind, and marking the anniversary of the Creation of the world.
- The First (but according to Hillel, the 15th) of Shevat for trees (RH 1:1).

The Day of Judgment,

the Day of the Sounding of the Shofar (ram's horn),

the Day of Remembrance.
