“It was also used more generally of any conflict, contest, debate, or lawsuit. Involved is the thought of the expenditure of all one’s energy in order to prevail. Here, as often, the verb is used metaphorically to denote a spiritual conflict in which believers are engaged. According to Alford, the preposition ἐπί in the compound ‘gives the purpose for which the fight is to be waged.’ The defensive nature of the conflict is made clear by the following dative, ‘for the faith.’ ”
