U.N. Resolution 60/7

Shoah

The Hebrew word of Biblical origins which has been used to mean “destruction” or “catastrophe”. This has become the standard Hebrew term for the murder of European Jewry as early as the early 1940s.

Holocaust

The word Holocaust, which came into use in the 1950s, comes from the Greek word “holos” meaning whole and “Kauustos” meaning a sacrificial offering burned on an altar.

Genocide

Genocide is the intentional action to destroy an ethnic, national, racial, or religious group in whole or in part. It is a hybrid word of Greek origin “Geno”, meaning race or people, and “cide”, meaning the act of killing. The term was coined by Raphael Lemkin – a Polish Jewish lawyer living in post-war America in his 1944 book “Axis Rule in Occupied Europe.”

SHOAH

The Holocaust was unprecedented genocide, total and systematic, perpetrated by Nazi Germany and its collaborators, with the aim of annihilating the Jewish people. The primary motivation was the Nazis' antisemitic racist ideology. Between 1933 and 1941 Nazi Germany pursued a policy that dispossessed the Jews of their rights and their property, followed by the branding and concentration of the Jewish population. This policy gained broad support in Germany and much of occupied Europe. In 1941, following the invasion of the Soviet Union, the Nazis and their collaborators launched the systematic mass murder of the Jews. By 1945 nearly six million Jews had been murdered.

Nuremberg Laws

The passage of the Nuremberg Laws by the Reichstag on September 15, 1935, was the first direct attack on individual rights of Jews in Germany. These laws mark a sharp progression toward an irreversible anti-Semitic policy.

Anti - Jewish Laws 1935-36

Jews prohibited from work in the government. Can only attend Jewish schools. The practice of business, law, or medicine is not allowed. Cannot teach or work in journalism. Excluded from movies, theaters, concerts. Can only use Jewish-owned shops. Can no longer swim or engage in sports.

KRISTALLNACHT

November 1938

“Night of broken glass,” anti-Jewish riots broke out in areas under Nazi influence.

Violence was committed against Jewish people and property by the non-Jewish population.

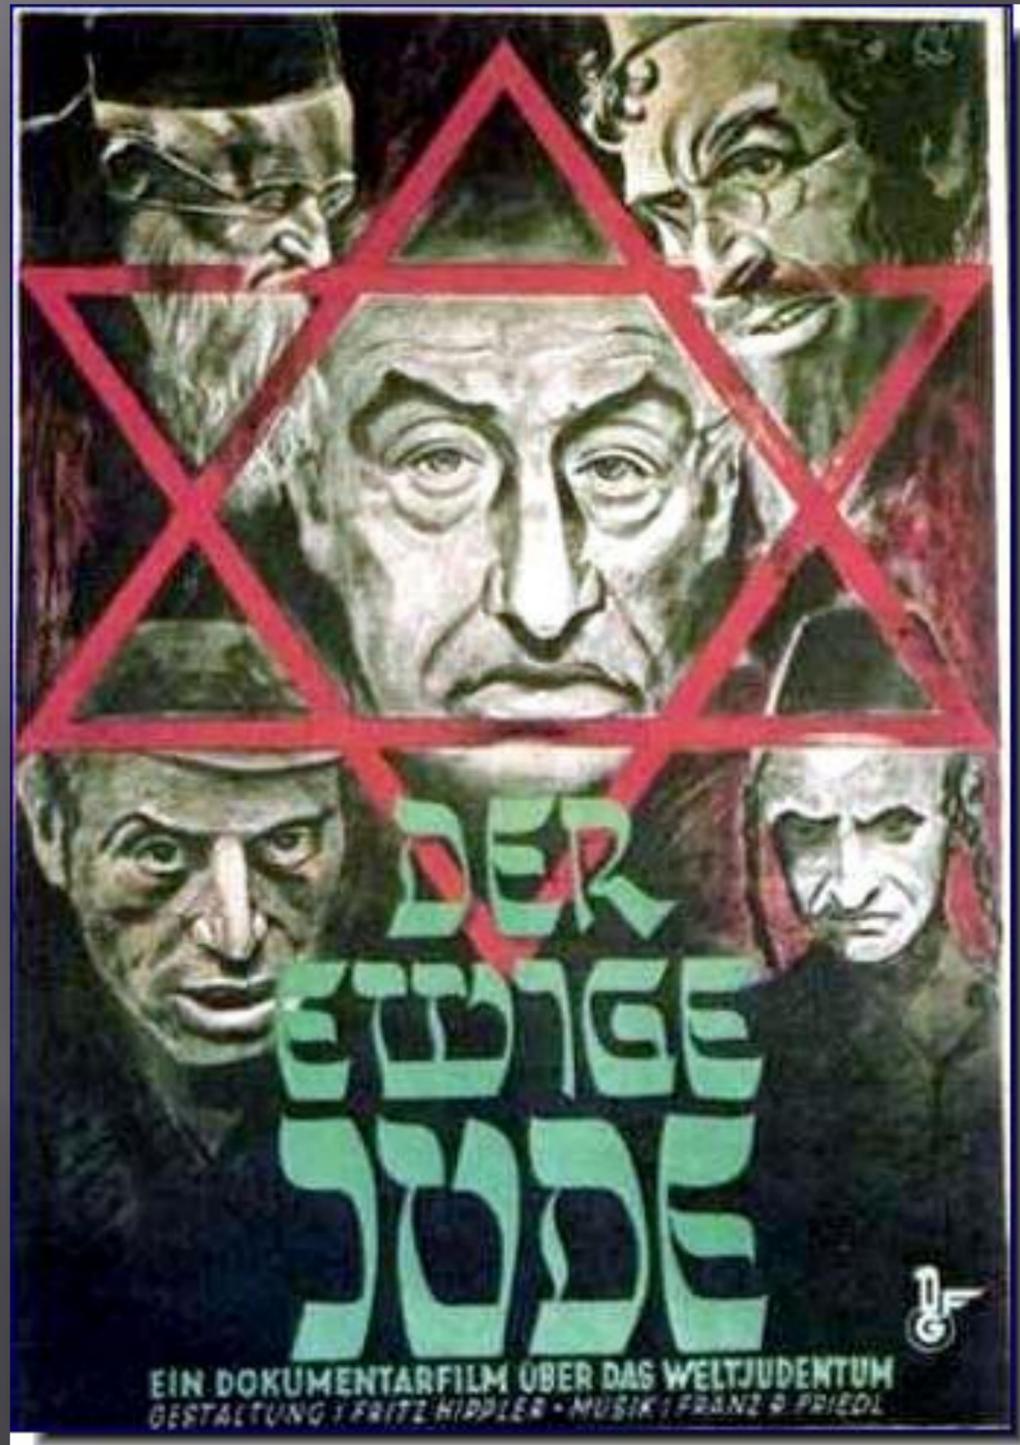

“Kristallnacht foreshadowed the extreme violence to come. There was no denying what was going to happen after Kristallnacht,”

Engineering mass murder

In the summer of 1941, Rudolf Höss commander of the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp had received orders to explore new methods of mass murder using poison gas.

The elderly and women with children were sent directly to the line of prisoners who were condemned to death in the gas chambers.

Auschwitz liberated on January 27th, 1945 by the Red Army.

I made the visit deliberately, in order to be in a position to give first-hand evidence of these things if ever, in the future, there develops a tendency to charge these allegations merely to "propaganda."

Why is it important we never forget?

- Antipathy toward the Jewish state (anti-Zionism).
- Anti-Semitism risen to levels not seen since the days before the Shoah.
- Holocaust diminished or denied outright.
- Witnesses passing away. (Covid)

Anti-semitism on the rise

One-in-five blame Jews for Covid-19

Study identifies conspiracy theory mentality

ONE in five people in England believe that Jews created Covid-19 to collapse the economy for financial gain, a newly-released study by a team of researchers at the University of Oxford has revealed.

Study leader Professor Daniel Freeman is a professor of clinical psychology at Oxford, and a consultant clinical psychologist at the Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust.

The Oxford Coronavirus Explanations, Attitudes, and Narratives Survey (OCEANS), was published in the journal Psychological Medicine.

It surveyed 2,500 adults who were representative of the English population according to age, gender, region and income, on their attitudes toward the government narrative on coronavirus and related conspiracy theories between May 4 and May 11.

The respondents were asked to what extent they agreed with 48 conspiracy statements. Covering topics such as general conspiracy theories about the origin and the spread of the virus and the government's response, the statements were crafted looking at both mainstream and alternative sites.

Presented with the statement "Jews have created the virus to collapse the economy for financial gain," 5.3pc of the interviewees "agreed a little", 6.8pc "agreed moderately", 4.6pc "agreed a lot", and 2.4pc "agreed completely", while some 80.8% did not agree with it at all.

"If a person blamed Jews [for the virus], they were also more likely to blame Muslims, Bill Gates and pharmaceutical companies too," said Prof Freeman.

"What we are observing is most likely a conspiracy mentality: a way of seeing the world that is marked by antipathy to official or mainstream accounts or to those in higher status positions."

The researchers also found that those who endorse conspiracy theories also reported a lower adherence to the authorities' guidelines to contain the virus outbreak.

Regarding their demographic features, they tended to be associated with "higher levels of religiosity" and a "slightly more right wing political orientation", as explained in the paper.

The survey comes shortly after NGO Hope Not Hate published a similar survey of their own, conducted

Domestic abuse among British Jews soars 27pc

THE Coronavirus lockdown has resulted in a 27 per cent rise in domestic abuse-related phone calls to Jewish Women's Aid, the charity has revealed, writes ADAM CAILLER.

A fundraising appeal in response to unprecedented demand for the domestic abuse support services during the pandemic has been launched.

According to a report, the number of women supported last month increased by nearly a third compared with the last three years, and a 25 per cent increase in direct client work over March.

The overall figure, although slightly less, mirrors the national picture of a 50 per cent increase in calls to the National Domestic Abuse Helpline since lockdown, and a sharp upsurge in domestic homicide cases in the same period.

A former client of JWA, 'Danielle', said: "I have nightmares every night because I know if I was living in lockdown with my ex-husband and my four children, I would be dead today and my four children would be in care."

"Fear, loneliness and utter desperation is something I hope no-one ever experiences."

Rise of Anti-Semitism in the USA

- A 72-year-old Hasidic Rabbi was one of five people who were injured in a machete attack during a Hanukkah celebration.
- Shooting in which five people were killed inside a Kosher market in Jersey City.
- An Orthodox Jewish man was also stabbed outside a synagogue in N.Y.

“We must take sides. Neutrality helps the oppressor, never the victim. Silence encourages the tormentor, never the tormented. Sometimes we must interfere. When human lives are endangered, when human dignity is in jeopardy, national borders and sensitivities become irrelevant. Wherever men and women are persecuted because of their race, religion, or political views, that place must — at that moment — become the center of the universe.”

In monism, all reality shares the same essence or essential nature or “being” to one degree or another.

Pagan monism denies that real barriers exist.

Biblical Christianity believes that God created the barriers, the kinds, the distinctions. Only biblical Christianity provides the solution for unity and diversity, which is in the Trinity.

Because of sin, life is corrupted, our souls are corrupted, our desires are corrupted, our relationships, our responsibilities, everything in life is corrupted and corroded.

But that does not remove God's design for roles and functions within His plan.

Men and women are equally in the image of God.

Men and women are designed for different roles and functions.

Sin corrupts our understanding.

Sin corrupts our biology.

Paganism attempts to redefine the meaning of male and female.

Gen. 3:17, “Then to Adam He said, ‘Because you have heeded the voice of your wife, and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you, saying, “You shall not eat of it”’: Cursed is the ground for your sake; In toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life.

Gen. 3:18, “ ‘Both thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you, and you shall eat the herb of the field.

Gen. 3:19, “ ‘In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; For dust you are, and to dust you shall return.’ ”
